

Where to Buy in Westerly

INDUSTRIAL TRUST COMPANY, Westerly Branch.

Capital ..... Three Million Dollars
Surplus ..... Three Million Dollars
Over Fifty Thousand Accounts.
Liberal, courteous and efficient in its management.

Established 1901.
Harold L. Wells, O. D. Ophthalmologist.
Defective vision corrected by the proper adjustment of lenses. Room 3, Potter Langworthy Block, Westerly, R. I.

DIAMONDS

It will pay you well to get our prices on diamonds, loose or mounted, before purchasing.
CASTRITIUS,
Leading Westerly Jeweler.

HEAVY AND LIGHT HARNESS

MADE BY HAND.
Hand Made Work is Our Specialty.
Whips and all Harness Supplies carried in stock. Factory Made Harness in stock at $18.00 and up.
N. H. SAUNDERS,
Removed to 44 West Broad Street, 3730d

Imported Dinner Ware

We are opening new patterns in China Dinner Sets, our own Open Stock Patterns, decorations and shapes not to be found elsewhere.
We deliver free to all our customers.
STANTON'S BAZAAR, Westerly, R. I.

BABIES!

Soon they will be big boys and girls and their baby faces will be only a memory. Bring the babies and I will catch their smiles.
STILES, The Photographer,
Brown Building, Westerly, R. I.
Telephone 347. 3733d

Buy Your Shoes and Hosiery

and get a coupon on the Piano to be
PURTILL'S,
"ON THE BRIDGE."
3732d

LAWTON'S SANITARY FISH MARKET

on the river; no dust; no odor; everything wholesome and clean. All kinds of Fresh Fish and Sea Foods in their season. Market 171 Main Street, Westerly, foot of Cross street. Tel. 343. Give us a call. 38014d

MRS. M. I. ELLIS

Professional Masseuse, Body and Facial Massage
Hair Goods a specialty. Fine Violet Goods.
54 Main St., Westerly, R. I.
3733d

WESTERLY'S LEADING CLOTHING STORE—

R. G. Bliven & Co.,

On the Bridge.
REGAL SHOE AGENCY.
We give S&H Green Trading Stamps with all purchases.

Monumental Works

I will guarantee to make a monument at the lowest possible cost consistent with good work. My experience of years in my service.
ALEXANDER ROBERTSON,
Oak St. near High, Westerly, R. I.

GEO. L. STILLMAN, Proprietor of the Stillman Carriage Co.,
Cockswell St., Westerly, R. I.
Carry the largest stock of new and second hand carriages and wagons. Also a full line of harness and parts of harness. Carriage repairing and painting and automobile painting. 3629d

For Electrical Supplies

and Construction, see

ROBERT M. HISCOX & CO.,

Tel. 457. 62 Main St., Westerly.

FOR SALE

Two seven-room cottages, situated in different parts of the compact part of Westerly, R. I., each having 60 foot street front, and both having vacant land adjoining that can be secured at reasonable prices if a purchaser desires. Both having heat, lights, modern plumbing. Inspection invited.
Frank W. Coy Real Estate Co.,
Westerly, R. I.
feb14d

Quiescent treatment of the hair and scalp, cures falling hair, baldness, eczema, dandruff and other irritations, itching, burning etc. Endorsed by leading physicians. Shampoos, dry treatments, facial treatments, manicure, Miss Lida Thomas, High St., Potter-Langworthy Building (Up Stairs). 3629d

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having purchased the photograph studio of A. A. Schofield, 30 Main street, we are ready to prove to the people of Westerly and vicinity our ability to do the very best work. A beautiful 16x20 water colored portrait of yourself given free with every dozen 4x6 cabinet. F. Rouleau & Co., Westerly.

City Pharmacy

TRY OUR
ICE CREAM, SODA and COLLEGE
ICES While Waiting for Your Car.
36 Canal St., Westerly, R. I.
3628d

The Washington Trust Co.,

WESTERLY, R. I.
Capital ..... $200,000
Surplus ..... $200,000
Executes Trusts.
Pays Interest on Deposits.
Good service—Considerate attention are guaranteed the patrons of this institution.

See my new samples of Fall and Winter Wools. Custom Made Suits $12.50 and up.
J. F. PELLEGRINI,
No. 4 Main St., Westerly.
Cleaning, Pressing and Reparing. 3725d

MONUMENTS

Before purchasing it's to your interest to correspond with me.
MAURICE W. FLYNN, Manufacturer and Builder,
103 Main Street, Westerly, R. I.
Telephone 242. 3714d

WESTERLY PROBATE COURT

Much Business at Tuesday's Session—Bequests in Edwin Babcock's Will—Other Documents of Public Interest—Suit Over Boat—Mysterious Man Identified.

The will of Edwin Babcock was presented for probate at the regular session of the Westerly probate court, Tuesday afternoon, Judge Edward M. Burke presiding. The will bequeathed $2,000 to Christ Protestant Episcopal church, as a perpetual fund, the income to be used in supporting and maintaining the preaching of the gospel, and for such other religious and charitable objects as the rector, wardens and vestry think best.

The service of silver presented Mr. Babcock by former creditors is given to the possession of his son, Albert Babcock, and the will directs that the service of silver "shall never be sold or in any other way or manner disposed of, from and out of the legal line of my descendants, but that it may remain therein as an incentive to honesty and integrity in business."

The will provides for a trust fund of $20,000 for his daughter, Elizabeth C. Babcock, now deceased. What would have formed this trust now goes to his son, Albert Babcock.

All the real estate was devised to his wife, now deceased, and under the will, this too, goes to Albert, who becomes the residuary legatee, and who was nominated in the will as executor.

The will is dated March 13, 1899, and witnessed by J. Barclay Foster, Thomas P. Nichols and William W. Foster. The will was admitted to probate and Albert Babcock confirmed as executor. Bonds of $35,000, Robert B. Comstock, John E. Canning and Charles E. Curran were appointed appraisers.

The will of Maria E. Brewer, who died February 16, 1910, bequeaths the parlor furniture to Edith K. Chick of Portsmouth, N. H., and a Victor phonograph to Mrs. Alice R. Hazard of Westerly. Mrs. Brewer bequeaths to her grandson, Frederick Steiger, his picture, taken when he was three years old, and his mother's picture.

To the Memorial Library association is bequeathed a picture painted by Edwin C. King, entitled "By the Way of the Cross" and a plaster bust of herself, made by Mr. King. Her brother, Edward A. Brewer, is bequeathed the furniture and dishes in the house owned by her at 196 High street. Allan L. Thompson is nominated as executor, and provision is made for the real and personal and the proceeds be expended in a monument at her grave.

The date of the will is February 14, 1910, and witnessed by Joseph H. Macomber and Reuben W. Austin. The will was admitted to probate. Mr. Thompson was confirmed as executor and bonds fixed at $2,000. The appraisers are Clarence E. Roche, Robert F. L. Barr and James W. Burke.

The will of Eugene Franklin Stillman was presented for probate and his wife, Evelyn Stillman, nominated as executrix. He bequeathed $100 to each of his daughters, Mrs. Mary K. Gates, Mrs. Pearl Clark and Mrs. Charlene R. Blake. The rest and residue of his estate is given to his wife. The personal estate will not exceed $100.

The will is dated September 18, 1901, and witnessed by Thomas McKenzie and Wayland P. Stillman. Mrs. Evelyn Stillman was confirmed as executrix and the will admitted to probate. A personal bond of $200 was required of the executrix. The appraisers are Alexander M. Blake, Everett E. Whipple and George L. Stillman.

The will of Alfred A. Stillman gives to his wife, Mary L. Stillman, subject to mortgage, home and lot in Grove avenue, and to his son, Lewis A. Stillman, the lot and carriage factory building in Grove street. His horse, carriage and harness and $500 are bequeathed to his son, Lewis A. Stillman. The residue of his estate is left to his wife, who is nominated as executrix in the will. The personal property is listed at $1,500.

The date of the will is October 3, 1894, and the witnesses are Charles Perrin and George G. Wells. The will was admitted to probate and Mrs. Stillman confirmed as executrix.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by Postmaster Potter, who received a letter from the father, Monday, who also sent a photograph of the son, which was a good picture of the dead man. Mr. Mitchell was greatly shocked to hear of his son's death, and stated that the son left home about four years ago and that vain search had been made for him ever since. Mr. Mitchell, before removing to Brunswick, was engaged in the saloon and shipping business in New London and was interested with his brother, Jesse Mitchell, in the ownership of property in Bank street, between two properties owned by the late Sebastian D. Lawrence, and also in the ownership of Mitchell's wharf, known years ago as the Old Steamboat wharf. A sister of John Mitchell and aunt of the dead young man is Mrs. William Ryer, who resides in Ocean avenue, New London.

Two more cases of diphtheria, a male child, aged 10 months, died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. William Mitchell, 22, born in New London, Conn., and son of John L. Mitchell, now of Brunswick, Ga. This was learned by